

Domestic Corporate and Government Name Change Policy

Definition of a Name Change

A name change is defined as using the value of an unused ticket, including taxes, as credit towards payment of a new ticket in another customer's name. The issuing office is the only office with the authority to reissue the ticket.

Eligible Customers

Name changes are permitted for all corporate and government customers who have a commercial contract with a Virgin Australia private fare agreement. The original ticket must contain a /CO or /GV or /WG ticket designator.

Eligible Tickets

- › The original ticket must contain a /CO or /GV or /WG ticket designator.
- › All tickets must be valid for exchange and not expired.
- › All coupons must be unused and travel must not have commenced.
- › All coupons must be on Australian domestic sectors.
- › All coupons must be on VA marketed and operated flights.
- › Codeshare flights are not eligible.
- › All tickets must be issued on 795 ticket stock

Name Change Process

1. Valid unused corporate ticket (/CO or /GV or /WG) for Customer 1 on PNR 1
2. Cancel flights associated with Customer 1 on PNR 1
3. Create a new PNR for Customer 2
4. Flights are booked from available inventory for Customer 2
5. Value from the unused ticket from Customer 1 is used towards payment of the new ticket for Customer 2, ensuring the applicable fare increase, taxes and change fees are collected on the new ticket
6. The original ticket is exchanged for the new itinerary for Customer 2 (new ticket is issued)

Important: If you had any ancillaries booked for Customer 1 that were associated to the original ticket, these will need to be cancelled or rebooked for Customer 2. The ticket is valid for 12 months from the date of the original ticket issue and all travel must be completed by this date.

Q. Can the old PNR be retained or is a new PNR required?

A. A new PNR is required and all inventory must be cancelled in the original PNR. Flights for the new passenger must be booked in a new PNR regardless of whether the new passenger is travelling on the same flights or in the same class as the original passenger.

Q. Can the itinerary be changed?

A. Yes. The value of the ticket may be used as credit towards payment of a new exchanged ticket anywhere on the VA domestic network. This is provided the new base fare is of equal or higher value than the original base fare and all rules of the new fare are met.

Q. Can the ticket be changed to a different fare type?

A. Yes. The value of the ticket may be used as credit towards payment of a new exchanged ticket anywhere on the VA domestic network. This is provided the new base fare is of equal or higher value than the original base fare and all rules of the new fare are met.

Q. When is a passenger name change permitted?

A. Prior to the scheduled departure of flight

Q. Can I use 2 unused tickets from 2 separate passengers as form of payment for a new passenger's flight?

A. No. This is not permitted.

Q. If a passenger 'no shows' prior to requesting a name change, is the fare forfeited?

A. No.

Q. How does this process differ from name corrections?

A. A "Name Correction" is defined as a correction to the name field of a passenger name record (PNR) and takes place in the same PNR.

- › Name corrections are permitted for:
- › Up to three characters in the first name and/or surname
- › Title Corrections
- › Guests commonly referred to by a shorter version of their real name e.g. Bill / William
- › Names entered in the wrong order
- › Unborn infants
- › Formal name corrections e.g. married to maiden surname or vice versa.

Please refer to the Name Correction Policy for further details.
