

Update from Virgin Australia

TRADE RELEASE

08 October 2021

Virgin Australia will connect even more Australians ahead of the Christmas holiday period, today announcing the re-introduction of services from Sydney and Melbourne to Coffs Harbour.

Virgin Australia will operate up to 21 return services each week between the cities, with Sydney-Coffs Harbour scheduled to take-off on 11 November 2021, followed by the seasonal Melbourne service one week later on 18 November 2021, which will run until 25 April 2022. Combined, the new services will provide over 14,500 seats per month to Coffs Harbour.

The services will help to reunite friends and family during the festive and summer holiday season, while providing a much-needed tourism boost to local Coffs Harbour businesses and helping more Virgin Australia team members return to the skies.

Re-Introduced services:

Route	Frequency	Commencement date
Sydney – Coffs Harbour Coffs Harbour - Sydney	Up to double daily	11 November 2021
Melbourne – Coffs Harbour Coffs Harbour – Melbourne (seasonal service only)	Up to daily service	18 November 2021
