

Update from Virgin Australia

TRADE RELEASE

12 January 2021

Virgin Australia is delighted to advise from today our Perth and Gold Coast lounges will reopen.

Due to social distancing requirements, the seating capacity within both lounges will be limited and adjustments have been made to the layout of the furniture within the lounges to ensure social distancing is maintained at all times.

Both the Perth and Gold Coast lounges will comply with all COVID-19 safe requirements as mandated by the state governments.

Guests will notice some changes including:

- › The requirement to use the QR code to complete sign in upon entry;
- › The entrance foyer will be used as an entry point only;
- › Furniture will be spaced 1.5m apart along with appropriate signage and social distancing markers;
- › Hand sanitiser stations have been placed throughout the lounges;
- › Self-serve food and beverage is currently unavailable*;
- › Lounges are deep cleaned prior to opening and frequent cleaning throughout the day will occur.

*Please note pre-made food items including sweet and savoury snacks, sandwiches and fresh fruit will still be available from our hosted food bar along with alcoholic beverages (including craft beers and curated wines), barista coffee, premium tea and soft drinks are still available.
