

Welcome to the best pitch deck you'll see this decade.

Ok. Definitely this quarter.

A little help from Virgin Australia. You've got this.

What I'm here to do:

Show you what better business travel could look like with Virgin Australia

Here's the thing.

As a business, we travel a lot.

Meeting clients

Bringing our teams together

But flying for business shouldn't mean choosing between value and a better experience

INTRODUCING

Virgin Australia Corporate Travel

(YOU WON'T FORGET THE NAME)

It's a corporate air agreement designed to give our business more from the travel we're already doing.

We're talking discounts that will make our CFO smile. Service that goes beyond the booking. And perks that make work trips feel a little less like work. I'm doing well here.

First up, getting there. Preferably comfortably.

Reliability is key

Virgin Australia had the lowest cancellation rate of all major Australian airlines in FY26*.
One less thing to worry about.

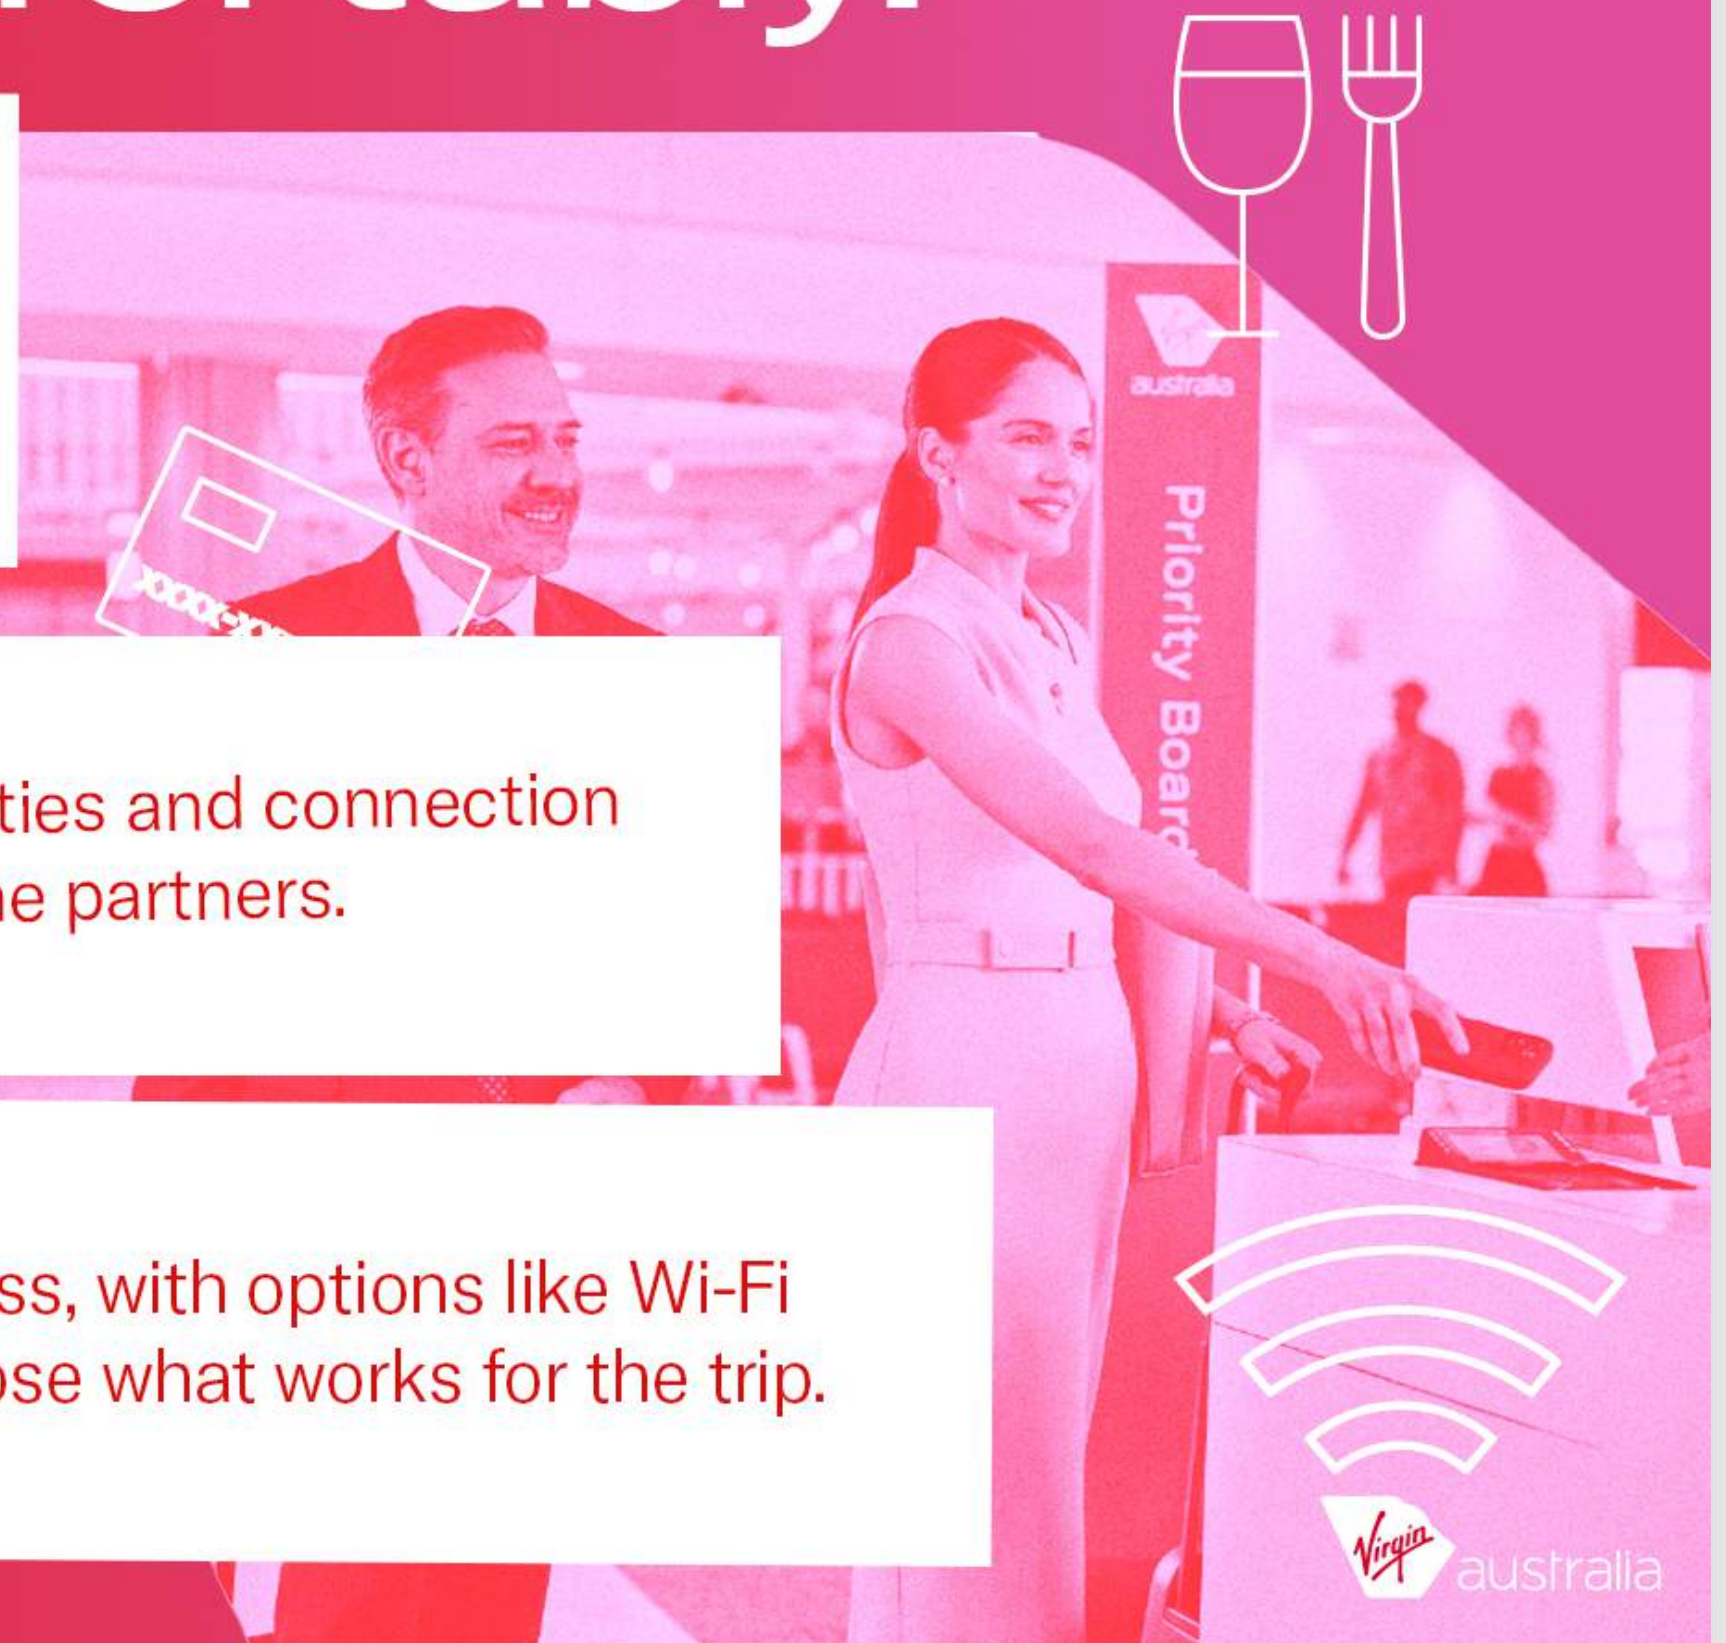

More places to do business

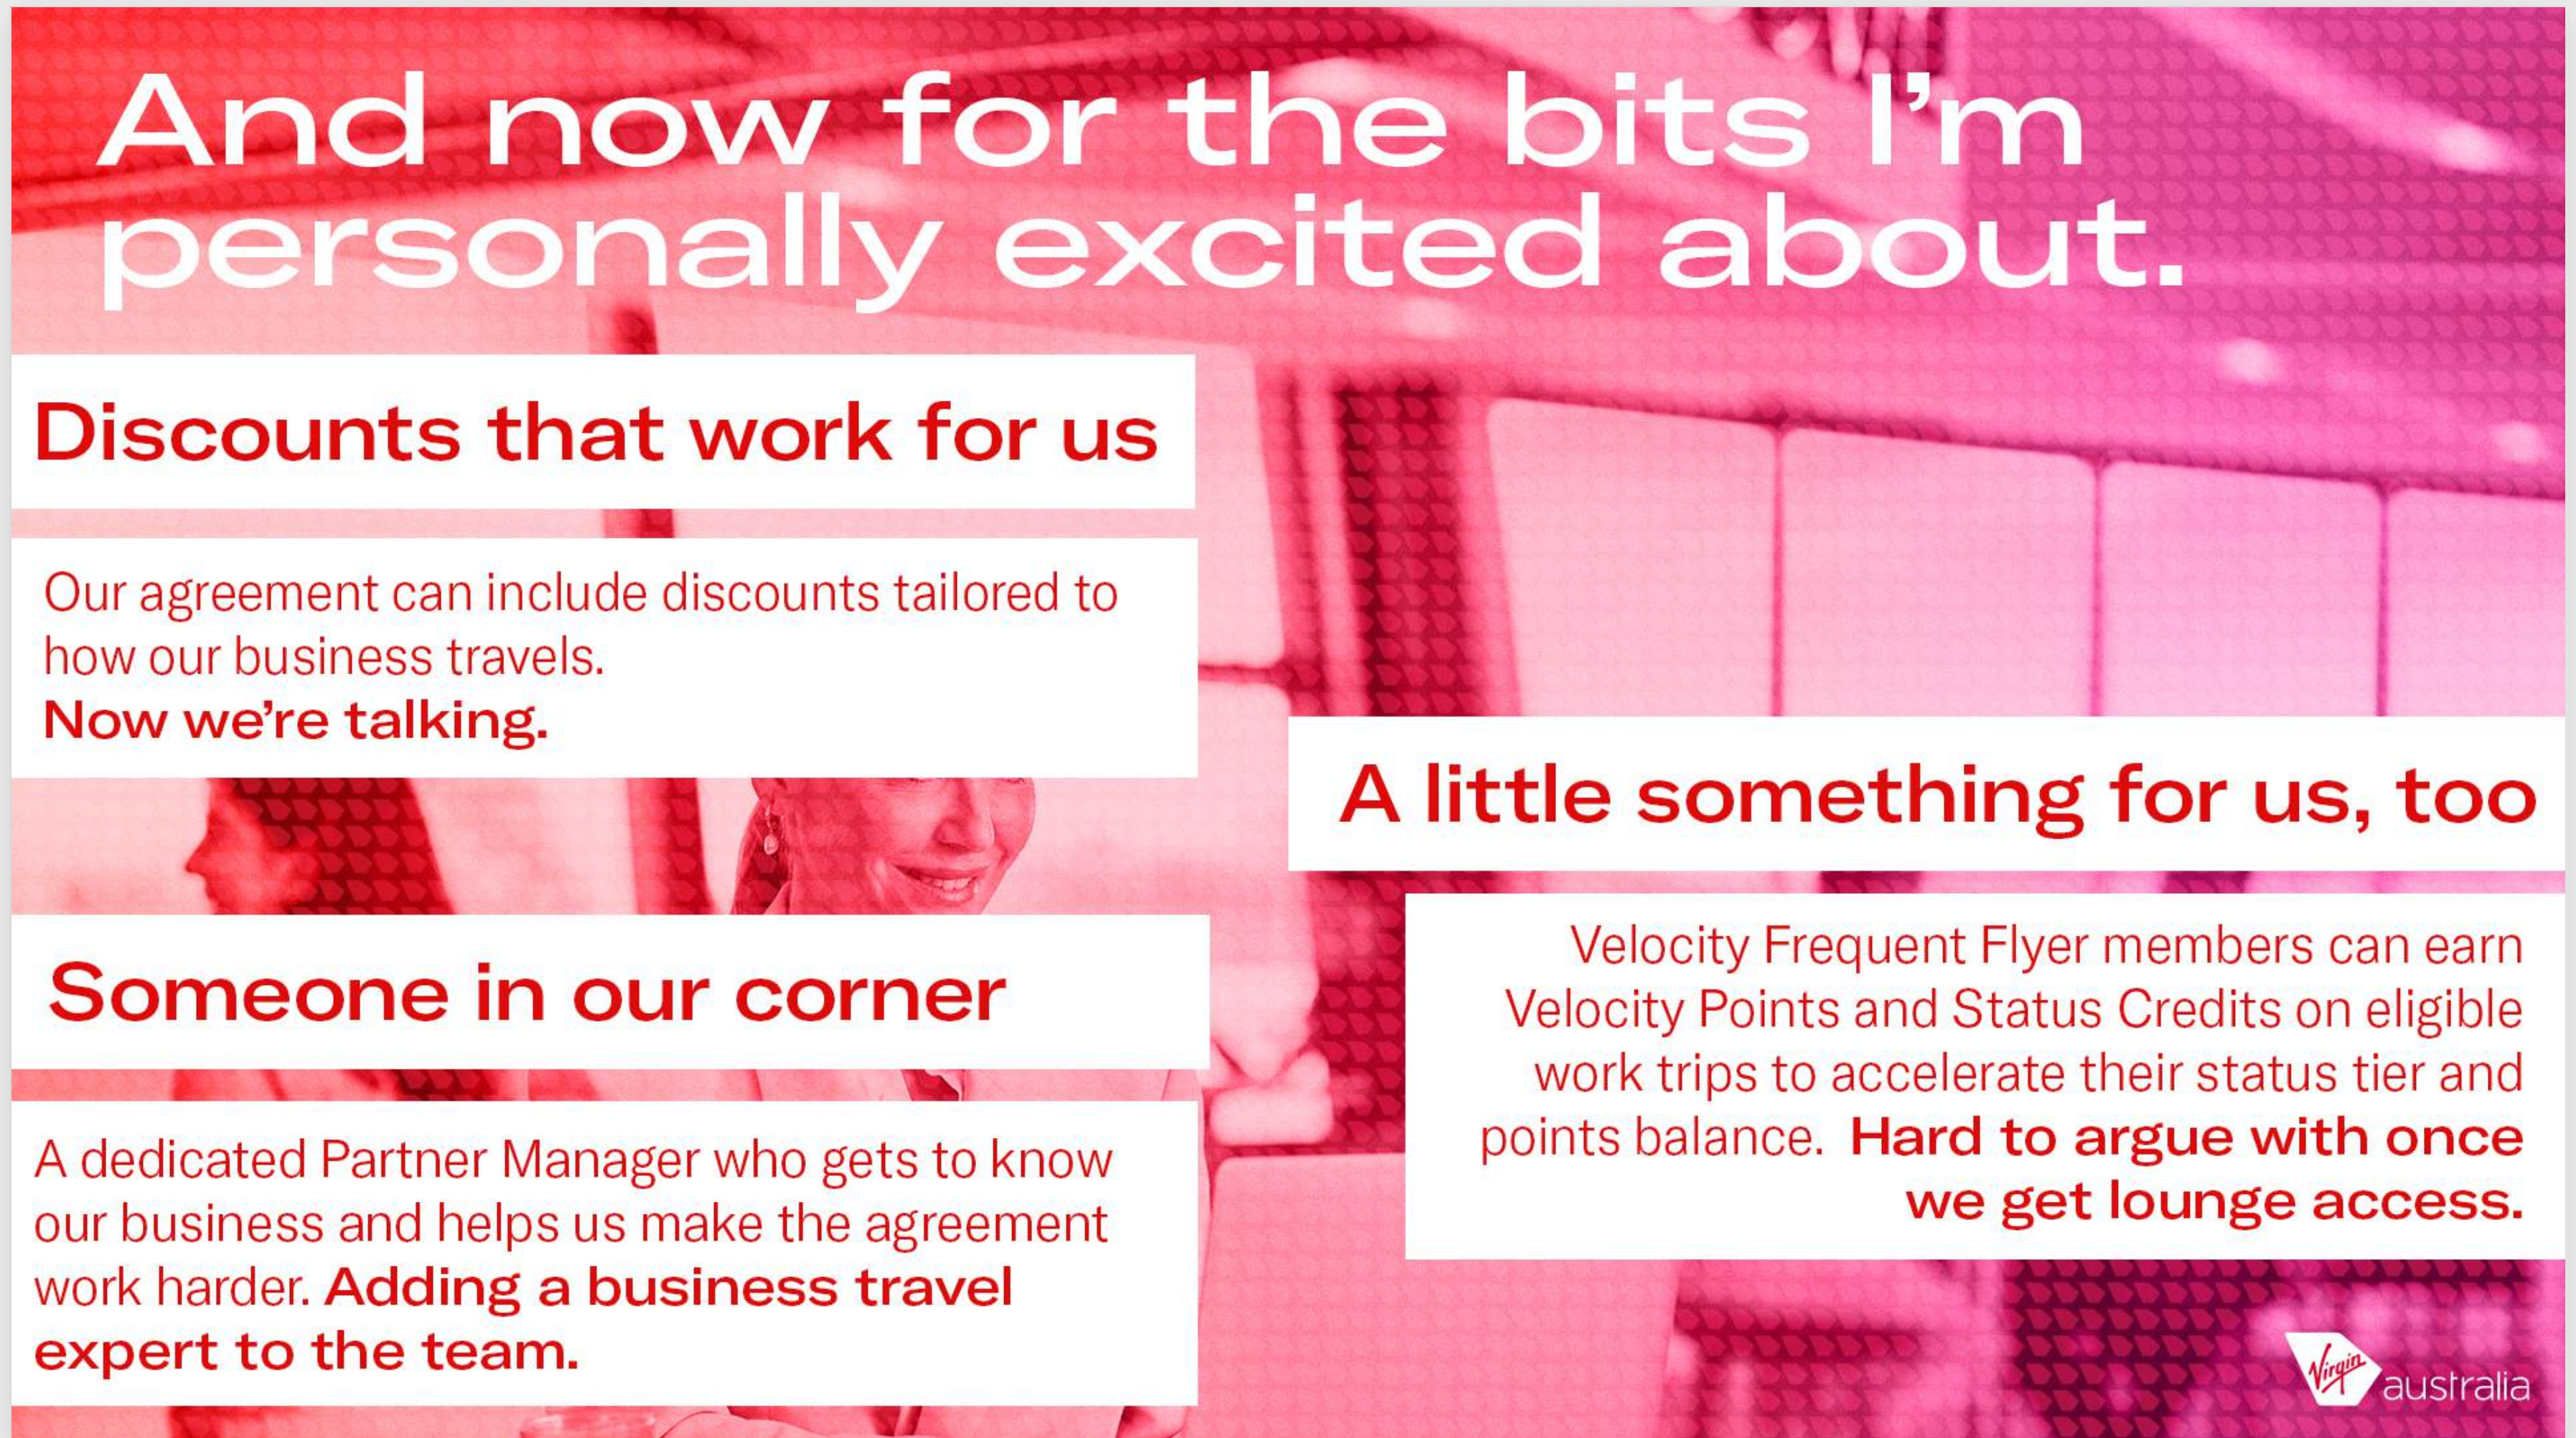

With over 250 flights a day between Aussie capital cities and connection to 600+ international destinations through their airline partners.
Let's show up where we need to be.

A better trip for our people

A choice of Economy, EconomyX and Business Class, with options like Wi-Fi and onboard meals on some flights so we can choose what works for the trip.
Because some trips call for a little more.

$$= \pi r^2$$

What you might not know...

$$V = \frac{1}{3} \pi r^2 h$$

$$2x \quad 60^\circ \quad \int da$$
$$30^\circ$$

Meeting finished early?

With their Fly Ahead benefit, we may be able to request an earlier same-day flight, depending on our fare type or Velocity status. Suddenly, finishing early gets even better.

Service doesn't stop when you land

Eligible Velocity members can access a Virgin Australia Lounge for up to one hour after arrival. Pre-meeting Barista coffee, sorted.

Economy or Business? Turns out there's something in between

Their EconomyX seats come with up to 40% extra legroom and priority perks. Our knees are already on board.

That's a lot. Let me make this simple...

It all adds up to more.
